Make it here. Keep it here. Grow it here.

StellerVista Credit Union exists to help everyone in the Kootenay / Boundary area make more out of the money they earn. When you keep it local we can help you grow it, and help to ensure that you can continue to pursue the community passions and projects that drive you. While the financial decisions we make that impact you are all locally made – the choice is all yours. The big banks may try to be here, but StellerVista actually lives here, just like you.

We invest in the same communities you do.

Our purpose goes far beyond banking. Investing profits into community programs and projects is just as important as enabling financial access to the groups on the ground making it happen. What we offer is partnership. While you'll definitely see us out in the community, we know it's you and your teams lifting the load in this community, and our goal is to support the effort of those improving life across the Kootenay / Boundary area.

While the chances are good that we've already met or partnered, they are even better that we have the same objectives in mind.

So it makes sense that we also support local non-profits by offering tailored banking services with reduced fees to help your organization achieve its goals. We help your team save, invest and thrive over time.
